

message to parents

Your decision to provide your child with a quality musical instrument is an investment in your child's future. In making it possible for your child to play a musical instrument, you are providing the opportunity for self-expression, creativity, and achievement. Numerous studies indicate that parental attitude, support, and involvement are important factors in a child's ability to successfully learn to play and enjoy music.

WHY The Music Store?

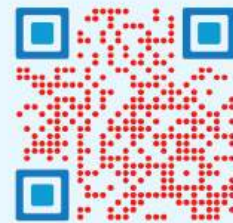

Professional Consultation - Our store is staffed by music education professionals who regularly consult with band directors and students to help your child get the most out of his or her instrument.

Family Owned and Operated - Former band director and founder of The Music Store, Paris York left a legacy for the family to maintain. Our staff is made up of retired band directors and pro musicians that assure you the personal touch you should expect when making an instrument selection for your child. Our years of experience in school band programs provide a wealth of knowledge for your families musical needs.

Commitment - Our company-wide commitment to the quality of school music programs means your family will receive our best service and only top quality instruments that are vendor supported. Your child's success depends on a strong working relationship between parents, school and The Music Store. We are accessible and work closely with all interested parties to assist you and your child.

beginner's starter pack description:

MAINTENANCE KIT - Dirt does more than keep your instrument from looking new. Dirt also prevents your instrument from playing it's best. A maintenance kit contains all the products any musician will need to keep that valuable instrument in good playing condition. Retail: $29.99

MUSIC STAND - A music stand does much more than simply hold music; it allows you to position your music at the proper height & angle. It also promotes correct playing posture and breathing technique. Retail: $27.99

MUSIC BOOK - The Beginner's Starter Pak comes with the beginner book used by your school's band program. Retail: $9.99 - $24.99
